Resources and information on Feed BC in K-12 can be found on our website. For any questions about the Feed BC program, including support with sourcing and tracking B.C. foods for K-12 schools, please reach out to the Feed BC team at FeedBC@gov.bc.ca.

Quentin is a Certified International Trade Professional who has worked with small rural businesses to sustainably grow their business in their communities. If you have a school food partnership idea and need support with the business plan or financial model, contact Quentin at interior@farmtoschoolbc.ca

IH public health dietitians offer food literacy resources, support for SD food policy and program development, and connections to Environmental Health Officers, community partners and the local food system. We can share needs with provincial contacts, identify opportunities for collaboration across Interior Health and BC, and advocate for programs and policies that support local food production at the local and provincial government level.
